'UNFORGETTABLE'

Serendipity: The effect by which one accidentally stumbles upon something truly wonderful, especially while looking for something entirely unrelated.

Our Story...

It all started when we began planning for our own wedding a few years ago. Determined to create a truly unique event, we hunted to find something extraordinary. During this search, we stumbled across the stunning Scandinavian tipis. With their effortless and understated beauty, we instantly fell in love, and from that moment...

Serentipi was born

Our Tents...

Based on a traditional Scandinavian design, our tipis are built to withstand the harshest of weather conditions. Whatever the weather, whatever the season, our tipis will guarantee that 'wow' factor and won't disappoint!

We'll deliver, erect and fully furnish the tents for you and with our dedicated team ensure your event is one to remember!
